SECOND DECLARATION OF JOHN D.
BOGDANOV IN SUPPORT OF COOPER
& KIRKHAM, P.C.'S OBJECTION TO LEAD COUNSEL'S REVISED
PROPOSED ALLOCATION OF AGGREGATE FEE AWARD TO
INDIRECT PURCHASER PLAINTIFFS'
COUNSEL

Judge: Honorable Jon S. Tigar

Before: Special Master Martin Quinn

1 I, John D. Bogdanov, declare as follows:

2 1. I am a member in good standing of the State Bar of California. I am a partner in 3 Cooper & Kirkham, P.C. I have personal knowledge of the facts stated in this Declaration and, if 4 called as a witness, I could and would testify competently to them. I make this Declaration in 5 support of the Objection of Cooper & Kirkham, P.C. to Lead Counsel's Revised Proposed 6 Allocation of Aggregate Fee Award to Indirect Purchaser Plaintiffs' Counsel.

7 2. I incorporate by reference as if fully set forth herein, the description of my work in 8 this case from the Declaration of Josef D. Cooper in Support of Plaintiffs' Application for 9 Attorneys' Fees, Expenses and Incentive Awards (Dkt. 4073-6).

10 3. Not one minute of my time submitted to Lead Counsel in this matter was 11 questioned or cut.

12 4. I never received any communication from Lead Counsel questioning or criticizing 13 the quality of my work, or informing me that my hours or work assignments were being reduced 14 because of the poor quality of my work.

15 5. I never declined to take a series of depositions, nor did I ever decline to take any 16 particular deposition.

17 6. I never received any communication from Lead Counsel questioning why I had 18 declined to take depositions, or reprimanding me for declining to take either a series of 19 depositions, or declining to take any particular deposition.

20 7. I never received any communication from Lead Counsel that my hours or work
21 assignments were being reduced because I declined to take one or more depositions.

22 8. Attached as Exhibits to this Declaration are redacted emails or email strings which 23 I sent or received in the ordinary course of business. Information which has been redacted is not 24 being relied upon for this Objection, but rather is redacted to protect confidential attorney work 25 product or limit the introduction of superfluous matters into the record.

26 9. On June 21, 2012, I was informed that Judith Zahid was going to take the Philips
27 30(b)(6) deposition. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of a partially redacted

1 email from Lauren Capurro to Judith Zahid and me dated June 21, 2012 which I received in the 2 ordinary course of business. I was never requested by Lead Counsel to take the Philips 30(b)(6) 3 deposition.

4 10. As of June 21, 2012, no deposition date had been set for the Philips 30(b)(6)
5 deposition. Attached hereto as Exhibit B is a true and correct copy of a partially redacted email
6 string dated on or about July 16, 2012 sent and received by me in the ordinary course of business.

7 11. The Philips 30(b)(6) deposition took place in Washington, D.C., on July 31-August
8 1, 2012. Sometime prior to the Philips 30(b)(6) deposition while I was assisting Ms. Zahid with 9 her preparation, Ms. Capurro informed us that she would be unable to appear at the deposition as 10 second-chair. I appeared at the deposition as second-chair in her place.

11 12. On April 9, 2013, I was informed that Mario Alioto had selected Diane Pritchard to 12 take the merits depositions for both Philips and LGE. Attached as Exhibit C is a true and correct
13 copy of a partially redacted email string dated on or about April 9, 2013 sent and received by me
14 in the ordinary course of business. I was never asked to take any merits depositions for either
15 Philips or LGE.

16 13. Ms. Pritchard appeared at two LGE depositions in July 2013 – Pil Jae Lee and Jin
17 Kang Jung. Attached as Exhibit D is a true and correct copy of an excerpt of the transcript of the 18 Deposition of Pil Jae Lee, Vol. 1, dated July 16, 2013. Attached as Exhibit E is a true and correct
19 copy of an excerpt of the transcript of the Deposition of Jin Kang Jung, Vol. 1, dated July 19, 20 2013.

21 14. The first Philips merits deposition did not take place until December 12-13, 2013 in 22 Newcastle, England, at which I appeared as second-chair.

23 15. I appeared at all of the Philips merits depositions (and one LGE deposition) as 24 second-chair, except the deposition of Jan de Lombaerde.

25 16. As Philips Team Leader, my responsibilities were not limited to a Philips
26 “universe.” This matter is a conspiracy case. Thus, I spent a great deal of time culling 27 information and developing an independent knowledge base pertaining to defendant groups other 28

1 than Philips and LPD where such information was likely to be found, including other defendants'
2 document productions, custodian lists, foreign language documents, deposition transcripts,
3 briefing, and directly from colleagues, in order to benefit the prosecution of Philips/LPD, as well
4 as the overall IPP effort. I reciprocated whenever I could such that my work product generated
5 while prosecuting Philips/LPD benefited the prosecution of the other defendant groups in this 6 action.

7 17. I believe that my aptitude in coordinating both the facts of the case and my history
8 of positive interaction with colleagues from other defendant groups was a key factor in being 9 selected to work on trial preparation. This work began when I was selected by Lead Counsel as 10 one of six attorneys from the entire case entrusted with working together to develop a list of 11 potential trial exhibits to be sent to the defendants for stipulated authentication in July 2014, and 12 continued forward in various iterations throughout the year. See, e.g., Dkt. 4821-2, Ex. 25, 27, 28, 13 29, 33, 34, 38, 41.

14 18. This broad-based knowledge was not only crucial to effective deposition 15 preparation strategy and execution, but was particularly beneficial during the depositions to which 16 I was assigned to appear as second-chair. Along with Ms. Pritchard, I worked closely with the 17 deposition examiners from the Direct Action Plaintiffs and California Attorney General during the 18 depositions to maximize IPPs interests, including steering questioning during the examination. In 19 addition, I participated in prep sessions both before and during the deposition with Ms. Pritchard,
20 Direct Action Plaintiffs, and the California Attorney General, assisting as a ready reference for all 21 parties, to the benefit of IPPs.

22 19. In sum, I performed the penultimate evidence management functions for Philips
23 deposition preparation and at the depositions at which I appeared. I was the final gatekeeper over 24 the universe of documents from which deposition exhibits would eventually be selected for 25 introduction at the deposition, including the responsibility for procuring foreign language
26 documents from the foreign language team, as well as generating and otherwise acting as trustee 27 of the exhibits themselves.

28

1 20. During my experience working on this case and in other antitrust actions, I have 2 found that each defendant and defense firm has a unique culture. In CRT, Baker Botts, counsel for 3 Philips, put up a formidable defense of their client in terms of their tenacity to thwart IPPs' efforts.
4 Though this is to be expected in complex litigation such as this, Baker Botts was particularly
5 challenging – so much so, that on January 13, 2014, Ms. Capurro indicated in an email that she did 6 not want to do Baker Botts “any favors since they have been very uncooperative in every aspect of 7 this case to date, not least in scheduling these depositions.” (Emphasis added.) Attached as 8 Exhibit F is a true and correct copy of a partially redacted email dated January 13, 2014 received
9 in the ordinary course of business. See also Dkt. 4821-2, Ex. 19 (noting “Philips’ recalcitrance
10 during our custodian negotiations and that fact that we obviously couldn’t trust their 11 representations”).

12 21. On April 5, 2013, I attended a preliminary approval hearing for settlements with 13 Chunghwa and Philips in The State of California, et al. v. Chunghwa Picture Tubes, et al., San 14 Francisco Superior Court Case No. CGC-11-515786 (“California v. Chunghwa”) at which Judith 15 Zahid of Zelle Hoffman and I discussed Philips issues with Kathleen Foote, Senior Assistant
16 Attorney General of California. After the hearing, I suggested to Ms. Zahid that members of her 17 firm and my firm could get together in the following week or so to utilize a window of opportunity
18 for a potential settlement with Philips. I never attended such a meeting and am not aware that one 19 took place.

20 22. On April 29, 2013, I attended the IPP class certification hearing before Special 21 Master Quinn at JAMS. Immediately after the hearing, I recall having a short conversation with 22 Craig Corbitt of Zelle. On April 30, 2013, Mr. Corbitt wrote an email confirming that there was a
23 meet and confer with the California Attorney General regarding the notice of the Philips
24 settlement in California Superior Court. Mr. Corbitt then noted out of the blue that Ms. Capurro
25 did not agree with me that we have no good evidence against Philips.

26 23. It was never my position that we had no good evidence against Philips, and I am 27 not certain why Mr. Corbitt characterized my opinion in that manner.

28

1 24. In order to correct Mr. Corbitt's misunderstanding of my viewpoint, I wrote the
 2 April 30, 2013 email referenced in the Alioto Declaration (Dkt. 4853-1), ¶24, and sent it to Mr.
 3 Corbitt. I did not forward my email to anyone. Mr. Corbitt forwarded my email to Lead Counsel
 4 and Ms. Capurro responded. Mr. Corbitt never advised me that he was going to send my email to 5 Lead Counsel.

6 25. My firm has served and continues to serve with Zelle in In re Automobile Antitrust
 7 Cases I & II, J.C.C.P. Nos. 4298, 4303 (San Francisco Sup. Ct.) where a similar issue existed
 8 concerning imputed liability. My April 30, 2013 email was merely a snapshot of one of the issues
 9 concerning evidence regarding Philips which was intended to be consumed by an insular group of 10 recipients specifically familiar with the facts of Automobile Antitrust Cases regarding the Nissan
 11 defendants. It was not intended to be a full assessment of either all of the evidence, or all potential 12 issues regarding Philips' liability in CRT. Attached as Exhibit G is the true and correct copy of the 13 partially redacted email string dated on or about May 2, 2013 sent and received by me in the 14 ordinary course of business.

15 26. I billed 11.9 total hours in the CRT Time and Lodestar Summary "Settlement"
 16 category during the duration of the case. I never formulated a settlement demand on Philips, nor 17 advocated for any specific settlement amount for Philips to anyone.

18 27. On August 29, 2013, Lead Counsel contacted me and requested that our client 19 Steven Ganz, one of the California class representatives, object to the settlement in The State of 20 California, et al. v. Chunghwa Picture Tubes, et al., San Francisco Superior Court Case No. CGC-21 11-515786. This required that Mr. Ganz sign and that I mail an original objection form by 22 September 6, 2013. On September 3, 2013, Sylvie Kern requested an update from me on the 23 status of obtaining Mr. Ganz's signature on the objection form and that Mr. Ganz mail it right
 24 away. On September 4, around noon, Ms. Capurro emailed that she was "sorry to be changing 25 things up at the last minute" but Lead Counsel instead wanted Mr. Ganz to opt out of the 26 settlement on behalf of himself and California class members, rather than object. See Dkt. 4821-2, 27 Ex. 18. Mr. Ganz was requested to review, complete, sign and return an original of the opt-out by 28

1 September 6. I advised Lead Counsel that beginning at sundown on September 5 it was Rosh
 2 Hashanah, which could effect the logistics of getting Mr. Ganz's signature. Nevertheless, Mr.
 3 Ganz was willing to meet me late in the afternoon on September 5, sign the form, and I was able 4 to messenger the document Ms. Capurro that day.

5 28. On June 9, 2015, I emailed a copy of IPPs' Motion for Preliminary Approval of the 6 Settlements with Philips, Panasonic, Hitachi, Toshiba and Samsung SDI Defendants (Dkt. 3861)
 7 to Steven Ganz pursuant to Lead Counsel's request. There is nothing in this document describing 8 the plan of distribution pursuant to the Chunghwa Settlement. Attached as Exhibit H is a true and 9 correct copy of the partially redacted email dated June 9, 2015 sent in the ordinary course of 10 business. At that time, I was not aware that the settlement class set forth in the Chunghwa 11 settlement included resellers.

12 29. By 2014, Philips depositions were in full swing and my focus was either appearing 13 at depositions as second-chair, preparing for depositions that were already set, preparing for 14 depositions that were to take in the near future, or seeking out other potential deponents. That is 15 in addition to other smaller projects that came up without notice. I understand that Brian 16 Umpierre, who was co-team leader for Philips after October 2013, worked on supporting the 17 project related to adding the Philips Taiwan and Brazil entities into the case. Though I was not 18 asked by Lead Counsel to participate in this briefing, I had already provided work product in 19 support of the effort and provided further information where needed. Attached as Exhibit I is a 20 true and correct partially redacted email string dated February 26, 2014 received in the ordinary 21 course of business.

22 30. At the end of 2014, responsibility for briefing summary judgment motions was 23 divided up between IPPs and the DAPs. There were two related Philips summary judgment
 24 motions with which I was involved; IPPs responded to these in one omnibus document. Dell took 25 ultimate control of the briefing and filed the Philips opposition. I did contribute to evidentiary 26 citations for the opposition, which are crucial to overcome any motion for summary judgment, and 27 helped edit the statement of facts. I was not asked to brief other summary judgment oppositions.

1 But I was asked to continue helping to finalize IPPs trial exhibit list and deposition designations,
2 which did not allow me to participate more fully. See Dkt. 4821-2, Ex. 39.

3 I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed this 23rd
4 day of September, 2016, in San Francisco, California.

Hi John,

Judith has very kindly agreed to help us with the Philips 30b6. She will first chair the deposition for the indirects and I will second chair (I don't think the directs can ask questions due to their settlement with Philips). Can you please send Judith all of the info on the Philips 30b6, e.g. our most recent letter and pared down list of topics, the Philips letter objecting to the topics and the April agreement on finished product custodians [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] She will also need the list of specific questions from ApplEcon, and you should start sending her the documents you and the team are finding so she can start reviewing those now.

Hi John,

[REDACTED]

In addition, Mario has found someone to take the Philips and LGE depositions for IPPs. Her name is Diane Pritchard—she is a very senior attorney with over 30 years' experience, and is an accomplished trial lawyer. I will send an email shortly introducing you & Brian to Diane and asking you to send her your discovery materials/memos – much the same way as we did with the DAPs. Although I'm not sure that Diane will want/need all of the meet and confer correspondence etc. I will ask her first. Once Diane is up to speed, we can get her input on who to depose etc.

Talk to you tomorrow.

Hi Everyone,

Attached please find an updated coding manual. It has been revised for the deposition preparation coding that our teams are currently working on.

As you know, we are working to integrate the DAPs into our doc review. To that end, I'm reviewing our doc review teams and deciding where best to use the DAP reviewers. Can you please send me the names of your T1 reviewers so I can update my records and what your team is currently working on? And please include a candid description of each T1 reviewer's work, i.e., are they putting in enough time + getting through their assigned batches in good time, how is the quality of their work product, anything else of relevance. Thanks.

Hi Everyone,

I just spoke with Erik Koons. He proposed March 4-5th for Joe Killen and either March 13-14th or 20-21st for Bob O'Brien. Apparently it's not possible to have these depositions scheduled closer together so that we don't have to travel to DC twice in a couple of weeks. And O'Brien is not available the week of March 24th to coordinate with the Spring Meeting.

Erik was not able to give me alternative dates for Johnson yet.

Personally, I don't feel like doing Baker Botts any favors since they have been very uncooperative in every aspect of this case to date, not least in scheduling these depositions. On the other hand, there's no point in making this an issue if the people taking the deposition don't mind either way.

Craig & John,

Sorry for the delayed response—we had a hearing in front of Legge yesterday that I had to prepare for.

John – thank you for clarifying your thinking on Philips. I agree with you that there is no issue with the quality of the evidence against Philips. For Craig, Judith & Mario's benefit, I've attached [REDACTED]

And while I agree with you that we don't have a lot of evidence on holding Philips liable for LPD's conduct, we do have some: [REDACTED]

that [REDACTED] There are also emails (which I can't seem to find right now), which show [REDACTED] And I think the fact that the EU held Philips and LGE liable for LPD's conduct is just as significant, if not more so, than the fact that the Korean FTC did the opposite.

But even if [REDACTED] I disagree that this is a big problem. Philips must show that it affirmatively withdrew from the conspiracy AND that the statute of limitations has run in order to have a complete defense for its participation in the conspiracy prior to July 2001. See Morton's Market, Inc. v. Gustafson's Dairy, Inc., 198 F.3d 823, 837 (11th Cir. 1999). Fraudulent concealment tolls the statute of limitations. See Morton's Market, Inc. v. Gustafson's Dairy, Inc., 211 F.3d 1224 (11th Cir. 2000). [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Ultimately, whether Philips withdrew and whether there was fraudulent concealment sufficient to hold Philips liable for its conduct prior to July 2001, will be a question of fact that will have to go to the jury. There is no way that Philips could get out on summary judgment. So assuming we win class certification, Philips is in this case for the long haul.

Finally, I've attached [REDACTED]

I hope this is helpful in informing the discussion on Philips and their settlement proposal. I think you can probably tell from this email how I feel about it. Having said that, I remain open to being persuaded otherwise.

Best,

Lauren

Subject: RE: CRT

I thought it would be useful to summarize my view of the evidence against Philips. I don't view this as a question of the quality of the evidence. Rather, I view the issue, given Philips' corporate structure and history regarding the CRT business, more as relating to the timing of the conspiracy evidence and which corporate entity can be held responsible.

There is substantial evidence of [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] However, the issue as I see it is imputed liability to Philips after July 2001. At that time, Philips and LG transferred their entire CRT business to the joint venture. LPD is now bankrupt, and our problem is holding Philips responsible for LPD's share of the tab. Yes, [REDACTED], but can we use any of this evidence to prove additional damages as to Philips and LG? LG and Philips were the only two shareholders of LPD. [REDACTED]

But given all of that, only one governmental body has imputed the liability for LPD's post-July 2001 conspiratorial actions to Philips and LG – the EU. The Korean Fair Trade Commission specifically held that "neither [LGE or Philips] has directly or indirectly dominated or participated in the decision making process related to the pricing and production volume of LPD. On top of that, the statute of limitations for the actions prior to July 1, 2001 has expired. As a result, [LGE and Philips] have been excluded from the defendant list."

Given my experience with Nissan evidence in Cars, we were faced with a similar situation and the corporate form did indeed win the day for Nissan (though there was far less [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] To get over this burden and avoid a similar result, we would need to develop more specific evidence [REDACTED] Perhaps we can put the pieces together and maybe a judge would ultimately buy it.

Steve,

Attached is a document which was recently filed on behalf of the indirect purchaser plaintiffs in the CRT Antitrust Litigation. It is a motion asking the court to preliminarily approve settlements with the remaining defendants in the action. The total amount from all defendants is $563 million.

Thanks,

John

Hi, Lauren.

Absolutely. Can you please send me a copy of their motion?

Thanks.

Hi Brian,

I'm not sure how up to speed you are on the Philips Taiwan/Brazil entities, but in a nutshell, we recently decided that we need to get them into the case because [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] They filed a motion to dismiss for lack of personal jurisdiction. We agreed to table the motion pending discovery. Now that we've decided to bring them in, we will have to oppose their personal jurisdiction motion. Do you have time to work on searching for and reviewing documents that could help us get personal jurisdiction over these entities? I'm copying Sylvie and John since they have both been involved this project (John has already found some relevant docs) and John also knows what else you guys are working on for the Philips depositions. I can get someone else to work with you on this, but I'd like someone more senior who is familiar with Philips and the database to take the lead. Please let me know asap if this is something you can work on. Thanks!

Lauren
